Concert Series Presents Korean Angels To City

As the initial performance in its Concert Series, Mount Saint Agnes College presented The Little Angels, a Korean children's folk dance group, September 29 in McAuley Hall Auditorium.

Organized in the spring of 1962, the group is currently on a coast-to-coast tour of the United States.

Twenty-six girls, ranging in age from seven through thirteen, form the nucleus of the group and are accompanied by five adult musicians. In addition to the fifty native musical instruments used in the performance, the costumes vary from each program selection.

Under the direction of Mr. Sung Ok Park, recognized as Korea's foremost choreographer, and Miss Soon Shim Shin, acclaimed as Korea's leading dancer and most distinguished ballerina, the children present a variety of dances based on ancient legends and traditions. Among the programmed selections were the Fan Dance, Children's Hearts, Twel Drum Dance, and Sword Dance.

Alonzo Rivera Two Wor

is country, Najan has been brought to the University of the Dance at Jacob's Pillow, Lee, Massachusetts, by Ted Shawn, its director-founder to join the faculty. Najan has performed in Madras, New Delhi, Calcutta, and Bombay where critics have acclaimed the precision and rhythm of his movement.

Mexican Dance Featured

Alonzo Rivera, a Tarascan Indian and descendant of the Mayans, originally came to Jacob's Pillow as a scholarship student and has recently been appointed to the faculty of the University of the Dance.

He began his studies of Mexican folk dancing with Sergio Franco in Mexico City, Mexico and has since moved out and studied the dances and customs of numerous regions of Mexico, Central America, and South America.

Traveled with Leon Escobar

Rivera has appeared with Leon Escobar and his company throughout Mexico and was engaged for successive seasons by Ted Shawn at the University of the Dance.

He has also performed in New York City at the Metropolitan Museum, the Brooklyn Museum,
